The team have arrested a very naughty individual who was allegedly trying to break into a bicycle shed this evening #chelmsford. They also had some equipment on them that you wouldn't normally have with you if you were taking a leisurely stroll! The individual has been arrested and we will conduct our investigation which will include a house search. They will spend the night with us whilst the investigation continues. We will keep you updated. This was a joint team arrest involving the Community Policing Team and the Local Policing Team.

🚨🚨🚨 UPDATE 🚨🚨🚨

You will remember our post from a couple of days ago concerning the disqualified driver who was arrested, charged and remanded. He was today sentenced to sixteen weeks imprisonment suspended for eighteen months.

Well it would appear that some people just don't fancy the 'New year, new me' thing. We have arrested, charged and remanded an individual that clearly does not understand the concept of 'Disqualified from driving'. If you are disqualified, it means you cannot drive!! Those that are disqualified are done so for good reason. They are a risk to other road users and pedestrians. We have taken the vehicle as well. Cracking start to the New Year...The individual concerned will have to attend Court on Monday after a short stay with us. Stay safe guys.

Oh dear... Not a very good start to 2021 for this driver. One male arrested for drink drive after providing an evidential sample of 66 in custody. The legal limit is 35. Just ask yourselves... Is having a few 'bevvy's' worth the driving disqualification? 2 young children and a female were in the car too. So not only is this driver risking their lives, but also members of the public/other road users. DRINK DRIVE IS NOT OK 🚫👎 We'll see you in court driver.
